TO TEACHERS OF ENGLISH

Have you ever spent hours hunting for suitable supplementary material for use in drilling upon a principle of composition?

Have you ever longed for fresh literary illustrations for work in review?

Have you ever wished to know of "tried methods" of teaching such subjects as sentence making, paragraphing, and letter writing?

The TEACHERS' MANUAL for WEBSTER'S EFFECTIVE ENGLISH EXPRESSION is designed to help you at these teaching points. The Composition Text and the Manual guarantee a vital, vigorous method of teaching effective English expression.

The Century Handbook Series

Just published

THE CENTURY VOCABULARY BUILDER

By GARLAND GREEVER and JOSEPH M. BACHELOR

A text to increase the number of words in the student's vocabulary and teach him to express himself with force and precision. In one volume—a storehouse of words, a manual of good usage, and a thorough and practical course on vocabulary building. Extensive lists of words—synonyms, antonyms, words of common origin, etc.—are arranged in groups for study. Teachers will be delighted with the wealth of oral and written exercises, and the student's interest will be continually refreshed by the word lore and word stories scattered throughout the book.

THE CENTURY HANDBOOK OF WRITING

By GARLAND GREEVER and EASLEY S. JONES

Treats essential matters of grammar, diction, spelling, mechanics, and sentence structure. One feature alone—the "decimal" theme correction method—has impelled hundreds of teachers to adopt and re-adopt this text.

THE FACTS AND BACKGROUNDS OF LITERATURE

By GEORGE F. REYNOLDS and GARLAND GREEVER

Historical backgrounds, essential literary facts, and illuminating biographical studies—all important data relating to authors and to literature are condensed for classroom study and arranged for ready reference.

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE

By GENERAL HENRY M. ROBERT

A practical, elementary manual for instructing pupils in the rules of parliamentary practice and procedure. Simplified and profusely illustrated by charts, etc.

THE CENTURY CO.

Grammar and Practice

FRAZEE and WELLS

Price: $0.90

A grammar which combines exceptional clarity of arrangement with effectiveness due to its many well-grouped examples of good usage.

Each part of speech is treated separately—which makes the book especially convenient in use, for reference or for an intensive review of a given part.

The authors have provided an abundance of illustrative examples to drive home the lessons of the text. The examples are of two kinds—the literary and the colloquial—and they, together with the Practice Exercises, fix the details of correct usage firmly in the pupil's mind. The Outline Summaries at the end of each chapter, and the material in the Appendix regarding Parsing and Analysis, Verb Conjugations, etc., are extremely valuable for reference.

A Manual of Good English

MacCRACKEN and SANDISON

Price: $1.25

A partial summary of its contents is contained in a review from The Writer:

> "Part I of this excellent little book is devoted to pointing out common errors in the use of words and giving rules for sentence and paragraph structure, with a forty-five page list of 'Words and Phrases Often Misused' in the first chapter. Part II treats of punctuation, capitalization, spelling, the preparation of manuscript and the correction of proof, and letter writing."

The Appendix contains a concise review of grammar with exercises which prove most useful when a class contains pupils of varying degrees of preparation.

The wide use of this manual in schools and colleges bears witness to its practical qualities.
